

Adjunct Instructor for New Testament Survey (Spring 2027)

Montana Bible College is seeking an instructor to teach its freshman New Testament Survey course during the Spring semester of 2027. This in-person class will meet twice a week for an hour and twenty minutes each session.

Below is the course description:

A study of the continuity of revelation in its fulfillment of Old Testament expectation. The Inter-Testament period is covered, and the advent and life of Christ are considered as to fulfillment for Israel, pertinence for the Church, and promise for the future. Consideration is given to the founding of the Church, its personnel, doctrinal endowments, and its consummation. Spring. Offered annually.

Qualifications:

Master's degree (MA, MTS, MABS, M.Div.) with a specialization in New Testament (Ph.D. preferred).

3-5 years recent experience in undergraduate teaching.

Desire and ability to engage, mentor, and disciple today's Christian undergraduate and dual enrollment students (Gen Z and Gen Alpha).

Willingness to utilize educational technology in the classroom.

Desire and willingness to contribute both to the academic and communal life of Montana Bible College.

Desire and willingness to support and advance Montana Bible College's mission: "Montana Bible College provides quality education that shapes Christian leaders through academics, service, and discipleship."

Subscription to the College's Statement of Faith and Community Covenant.

<https://www.montanabiblecollege.edu/about>

To apply for this position:

Send CV and cover letter to Dr. Andre Gazal, Vice President of Academic Affairs at andre.gazal@montanabiblecollege.edu